THEATRICAL.

Miss Adelicia Randall, who is known in Hopkinsville and made such a favorable impression on our citizens on her former visit here a few years ago with the Lyceum Opera Company, will again favor us with a visit of two nights, next Friday and Saturday, and a special Saturday Matinee. She will open her season here with "Madame Boniface," a bright and sparkling comedy from the French, the music of which was written by Lacoste, the composer of the "Marques," a comic opera played early this season at the Casino, in New York.

The livery stable which is being erected on the corner of Seventh and Elm streets, is almost completed and will be ready for use in a few days.

Mr. Jno. N. Mills, received a letter from his brother, H. Q. Mills, in Washington, in which he says he is improving in health and hopes to be entirely recovered in a few days.

Mr. W. L. Nourse has organized a reading society which devotes an hour to reading every Friday night. It meets at the Ninth Street Presbyterian Church.

Judge J. L. Landis had an attack of vertigo in his office Saturday morning. Dr. Young was called and pronounced it the result of indigestion. The Judge has entirely recovered.

Rev. J. T. Barrow left Saturday to begin a series of meetings with the church of which he is a pastor at Princeton. He was joined yesterday by Rev. J. N. Prestridge, who will aid him in the meeting.

The trial of Dan Marshall for violating the prohibition law, came up before Judge Winfield Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The evidence against Marshall was rather strong and he was fined $50 and costs and given ten days to pay his fine.

The firm of Underwood & Ellis, boot dealers has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Ellis retaining Mr. Underwood and forming a partnership with Messrs. Yancey & Davison, and the firm will be known as Yancey, Davison & Underwood.

Rev. A. W. Crawford and family of Kansas, have moved into the house formerly occupied by Chas. Slaughter, on North Main street. Mr. Crawford has accepted a call from the First Presbyterian church. We wish him success in his new field of labor and welcome him to our city.

Miss Ogg and Pig Green had a difficulty on Ninth street, near the depot, Saturday night. Some hot words were passed when Green pulled a pistol and fired twice and then turned around and started off, when Ogg pulled a revolver and fired twice, neither shot taking effect. We were unable to learn the cause of the trouble. Green was arrested Saturday night but Ogg is still at large.

Sanford Henry and Harry Coleman, who were arrested by U. S. Deputy Marshal for violating the revenue law in this city, returned Sunday from Louisville, where they were taken to be tried before the U. S. Court. The court failed to find the evidence strong enough to convict Henry and he was released.

Coleman was also released on a bond of $100 to appear before the court on October the 2d.

By a perusal of our advertising columns it will be seen that the advertisement of John C. Lewis, 414 to 424 Fourth Avenue, Louisville, Ky., appears in this issue. Catalogue containing price list of all the goods handled by him will be cheerfully mailed free on application. A list of sample prices will be found in inadvertence to the goods.

Attention is called to the advertisement of S. T. Moore & Co., the great manufacturer's agents, Louisville, Ky. This firm has been in business for twenty years, handling Furniture, Carpets and Household Goods at retail for wholesale prices, and their immense business necessitated a change of location, from cor. 4th and Main to 436-438 Jefferson, 439-441 Green Street, between Fourth and Fifth Avenues, to accommodate the demands of the public.

We induce every assertion and all advantages claimed by them in their advertisement as they are the only manufacturers' agents South of the Ohio river, therefore have no competitors. Their manner of conducting business sets out the "middle man," saving consumer their profits and giving said consumer goods at wholesale prices or a saving of at least 50 per cent. Don't fail to avail yourself of this chance to save money when in need of anything in their line by calling in person or address them.

Revival on Board Steamer "City of Owensboro."

Recently, Col. Winstead, of Henderson, Ky., shipped several hundred cases of "Silk Velvet" whiskey barrels on Steamer "City of Owensboro" to Louisville. The deck hands drained whiskey from the hung holes and all got happy and sang with "hands all round, 'We're on the good old ship of Zion—Hallelujah!'" and still a profligate will say, that old "Silk Velvet" will make a man fuss with his wife, draw his sword on his best friend and send his soul to perdition.

G. A. Lieper, ex-warden of the Arkansas penitentiary, has been charged with being successor in the hundred of eight convicts in the Coal Hill Mines. The convicts were whipped to death by the wardens and guards under Lieper.

J. Howe, a laborer, who had been on a protracted spree, at Fort Collins, Col., brutally murdered his wife by hitting her repeatedly with a jack-knife. The man is naked, and the body of the woman is still in the house. Thirty men took possession of the jail, where he had been placed, and soon had Howe swinging to a derick in the court-house yard.

GENERAL NEWS.

A negro named George Washington shot and killed two white boys, named Edmunds at Aberdeen, Miss., in a quarrel over a trivial matter. A posse has gone in pursuit and a lynching is likely to occur.

J. H. Tamm, one of the wealthiest citizens of Aberdeen, Miss., was severely bitten on both hands by a mad dog. He immediately left for Pontotoc county to try the virtue of a famous madstone said to be there.

It was Brigham Young's son who wrote the line: "What is home without a mother?"

There are also honorable ball-players. The corruption is principally confined to base men.

The farmer is naturally disgusted when a ten-cent dog kills two hundred dollars worth of sheep.

Two oysters in a gallon of ink-worms sold at a church fair are no longer called stews, but aquarums.

If you are anxious to do some hard missionary work, leave your club and spend your evenings with your family.

An invention has been recently patented called a rotary squeezer. They are likely to become very popular with the girls.

The farmer has his work nearly finished, and will soon have nothing to do but sit on the fence and shoot wandering tree ants.

Richelieu adorned friendship to the medicine for all misfortune. All very nice, cardinal, but when trouble comes the bottle is always found empty.

There is nothing that will knock the ground-plowing from under a man's geological training quicker than to walk against the edge of a door in the dark.

An American tourist said that a San Domingo revolution consists of "a few yell, three or four hours, some one accidentally wounded, and come home, darling—all is forgotten."

A colored preacher in Alabama put his foot on excessive bribery at elections, and underlined it. "Ding-dong," he said, "ob one hundred dollars for a vote is all wrong; ten dollars is as much as it's worth."

A Louisiana man has had three wives in four years. He traded one for a farm, another for a pair of horses, and the third for a mule. He is only forty years old, and expects to stock his farm entirely if he has good luck.

There is nothing that will tend to make a man forget to say a blessing at the breakfast table quicker than to sit on a plate of soft-boiled eggs that the cook had set in eggs and buckets, $6.00 for prime steam.
